Echelon Mercatore Program

Now's your chance to sign up to sell exclusive 30 Seconds To Mars items from your own website, blog or social networking page.

30 Seconds To Mars invites you to become an official Mercatore where you can sell a variety of exclusive items to music fans across the internet. It's easy - you don't have to collect payments or deliver items to customers. Just signup and paste the code that we give you into your blog or social network page. That's it! When customers click your storefront badge, they are taken to our special purchase page, where the sale is credited to you. The more you sell, the more points you earn.

The Mercatore store launches with an exclusive HD version of the groundbreaking short film for From Yesterday. See it HERE.

In honor of our launch of the Mercatore program, everyone who signs up to become a Mercatore member is automatically entered to win a new iPod shuffle and a $50 iTunes gift card. No purchase necessary to enter. See official rules for sweepstakes details.

As a special bonus, members are eligible for our contest! The Mercatore member that accumulates the most points in our contest will receive a limited edition 30 Seconds To Mars 6' flag as seen in the video for From Yesterday plus a new iPod shuffle and a $50 iTunes Product Red gift card. See official rules for contest details.
